

NAKISHA N. CHANEY

State Bar of Michigan ADR Section
Annual Conference | 2025

Nakisha N. Chaney is of counsel at Salvatore Prescott Porter & Porter, where she practices employment and civil rights law. Ms. Chaney also serves as a mediator and workplace investigator, and teaches Civil Rights Litigation, Mediation and Employment Law at the University of Michigan Law School. Ms. Chaney has written and spoken extensively on matters of employment law, civil rights and human trafficking, and has received the Washtenaw County Bar Association's Martin L. King, Jr. I Have A Dream Award, the State Bar of Michigan's Alternative Dispute Resolution Section's Hero of ADR Award, and the Human Trafficking Legal Center's Litigator of the Year Award.

