

NICK LEONARD

---

State Bar of Michigan ADR Section
Annual Conference | 2025

Since becoming the Great Lakes Environmental Law Center's Executive Director in 2018, Nick has pushed the organization to become a leader in Michigan's robust environmental justice movement by providing legal representation to frontline communities across the State. As the Great Lakes Environmental Law Center's Executive Director, Nick supervises the Center's attorneys and coordinates the organization's legal strategies. He also regularly represents the Center's clients on a wide variety of issues.

Prior to serving as Executive Director, Nick worked for the Center as an Equal Justice Works fellow from 2014 to 2016 and as a staff attorney from 2016 to 2018.

Nick spends his free time watching Detroit Tigers baseball and spending time with his wife and two daughters on Belle Isle.
