

ALEX GREEN IV

Bio

Alex is a graduate of Detroit Mercy Law School and has a Master of Arts in Dispute Resolution (MADR) degree from Wayne State University, both schools are in Detroit, Michigan. He is also a trained and court-approved general civil mediator. Although Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is not a new concept, it has recently achieved increased popularity and widespread implementation. Accordingly, Alex has sought to collaborate with stakeholders and decision-makers to be part of the process in determining best practices within this field. He applied and was accepted as an American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Dispute Resolution Diversity Committee Fellow for the 2021-2022 and the 2022-2023 Bar years. He is also a member of the State Bar of Michigan's ADR Section's ADR Council for the 2021- 2022, 2022-2023 Bar years, and as co-chair of the Skills Action Team (SAT) for the 2023-2024 Bar years. Alex has been a contributor to Just Resolutions, an ABA podcast sponsored by the ABA's ADR Section, since 2021 and served as a co-chair during the 2023-2024 Bar year. Alex is the founding partner of Alex Green IV, PLLC where he works as a solo practitioner with his legal practice focusing on civil matters, including but not limited to, ADR, landlord/tenant, probate, estates, and trusts, contract, administrative, real estate, and municipal law. He also handles some low-level criminal cases. While managing this and other responsibilities, Alex also works for his family real estate business based in the Detroit-Metro area.
