

MARVIN E. JOHNSON

Bio

Marvin Johnson Marvin E. Johnson, J.D. is a nationally recognized mediator, arbitrator, and trainer with more than 27 years of dispute resolution experience. He is the Founder and Executive Director of the Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution, the first dispute resolution center founded at a historically black university. Mr. Johnson provides workshops and lectures extensively on the subjects of diversity and conflict management.

Three Presidents of the United States, a Secretary of the United States Department of State, a Governor of Maryland, a Chief Judge of the Maryland Court of Appeals, and the County Executive for Prince George's County, have recognized Mr. Johnson's dispute resolution expertise by appointing him to the Federal Service Impasses Panel, the Foreign Service Grievance Board, the Maryland State Labor Relations Board, the Maryland Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission (now the Maryland Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office or MACRO), and the Prince George's County Public Employee Relations Board, respectively. He has served on numerous national and regional dispute resolution panels, including the American Arbitration Association National Roster of Neutrals and the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Mr. Johnson is a Past President of the International Academy of Mediators (IAM) and has served on the Boards of the ABA's Section of Dispute Resolution, the Association for Conflict Resolution, and IAM.
