

ANNE BACHLE FIFER

---

Bio

Anne Bachle Fifer of Grand Rapids, Michigan, is a mediator, facilitator, arbitrator, and mediation trainer. Her mediation experience includes business contracts, workplace disputes, and estates, as well as church-based conflicts integrating Christian principles into the mediation process. As Michigan's most experienced general civil mediation trainer, she regularly conducts both basic and advanced mediation trainings. Long associated with Peacemaker Ministries, she now serves as chair of its board. She volunteers as a mediator with the Dispute Resolution Center of West Michigan, and serves on state court and state bar committees related to ADR in Michigan. She served two terms on the State Bar of Michigan's ADR Section Council, edited its newsletter for several years, received its Distinguished Service Award for contributions to the ADR profession, and, most recently, received its Nanci S. Klein Award for her work in community mediation. She is listed annually in Best Lawyers in America© in the field of mediation.