

SHAWNDRICA SIMMONS

---

Bio

Shawndrica Nicole Simmons is a highly accomplished mediator and attorney based in Pontiac, Michigan. She is the founder and principal litigator at Simmons Legal, d.b.a. the LawChic, where she focuses on family law, probate, labor and employment law, contractual law, and real property law. With a legal career spanning over two decades, Shawndrica has established herself as a formidable advocate in both state and federal courts.

Shawndrica's educational background is distinguished, having earned a certification as a Labor Executive from Harvard Law School, a Juris Doctor from Thomas M. Cooley Law School, and a Bachelor's degree in English and History from the University of Michigan, Dearborn.

In addition to her legal practice, Shawndrica is an entrepreneur who owns and operates two supervised parenting time facilities in Pontiac and Detroit. She is dedicated to training individuals in supervised parenting time monitoring, utilizing alternative dispute resolution techniques to ensure the best outcomes for families.

Throughout her career, Shawndrica has held significant positions such as Secretary-Treasurer and Human Resources Director at Metro Detroit AFL-CIO, Labor Representative for Michigan AFSCME Council 25, and Domestic Relations Specialist at the Third Circuit Court in Detroit. Her leadership extends to various public service roles, including her current positions on the Labor & Employment Advisory Board for the Institute of Continuing Education and as Treasurer for the University of Michigan Black Alumni Association.

Shawndrica is actively involved in numerous professional organizations, including the State Bar of Michigan, the American Bar Association, and the ACLU. Her commitment to civil rights, legal education, and community service underscores her dedication to the legal profession and the broader community.