

GARY ALLEN GARDNER

Bio

After more than 25 years of substantial family law litigation, Gary Allen Gardner considers himself a recovering divorce attorney. He is an accredited advanced Collaborative Divorce professional, and his peacemaking practice at Rosi & Gardner, P.C. in Traverse City includes extensive work as a mediator throughout Northern Michigan. Gary still enjoys advocacy complex, multiparty probate litigation (when ADR processes fail).

Gary received his law degree from Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, and worked at Legal Services of Eastern Michigan and UAW-GM Legal Services before moving to Traverse City in 1999. Gary is a fan of jazz and improvised music, loves to travel with his wife, and recently learned to paraglide in Costa Rica.
