

SUSAN HISER

Bio

Susan Hiser is a Principal with Calzone Hiser, PLLC, serving as a neutral mediator, workplace investigator, and Title IX hearing officer. She has more than 30 years of experience as an attorney practicing in the areas of employment litigation defense, employer counseling, and workplace investigations. She is a member of the State Bar of Michigan's ADR and Labor and Employment Law Sections. She served on the governing Council of the Labor and Employment Law Section from 2009-2018 and as its Chair from 2016-2017. She is also a member of the American Bar Association Labor & Employment Law Section's Employment Rights and Responsibilities Committee and has served as a Program Co-Chair, Administrative Co-Chair, Workplace Investigations Subcommittee Co-Chair, and ERR Gives Back Community Service Initiative Co-Chair. She is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers and the Michigan State Bar Foundation. Susan has been a featured speaker on a variety of employment law topics for the State Bar of Michigan, the American Bar Association, and the Institute for Continuing Legal Education.