

JULIE MARKGRAF

State Bar of Michigan ADR Section
Annual Conference | 2026

Julie Markgraf, Esq., has served as General Counsel for hospitals and health systems as well as corporate counsel with a focus on employment and labor law for engineering, manufacturing, and staffing industry clients. Julie also has experience as an ADR neutral. She currently focuses on corporate legal consulting work built on her experience in non-discrimination, DEI compliance, managing litigation, leading compliance investigations, proactively mitigating risk, employment and labor law, healthcare clinical and regulatory matters, and patient rights and guardianship.

Julie is an active member of the ADR Section of the State Bar of Michigan, including currently serving on the section's council and the Legislation and Court Procedures Action Team (LCPAT). Julie majored in Psychology and Anthropology at Michigan State University for her bachelor's degree prior to attending Wayne State University Law School.

Julie can be reached at julie.markgraf.esq@gmail.com.

